PREFACE

If we could first know where we are and where we are tending, we could better judge what to do and how to do it.

Abraham Lincoln

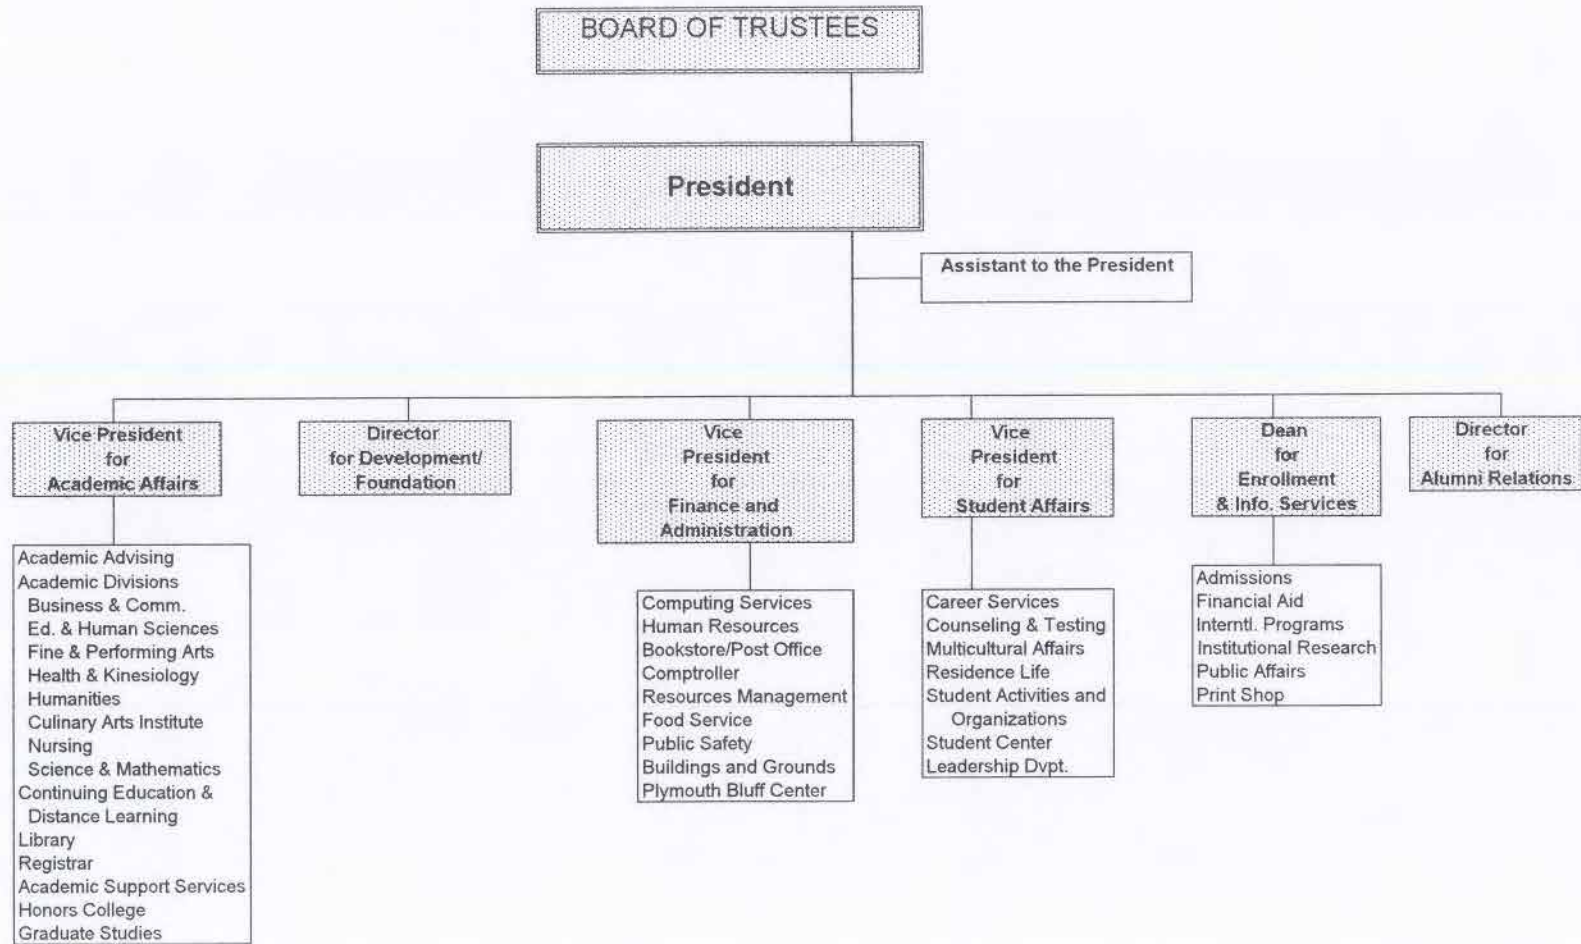

The 2000-2001 FACT BOOK is designed to provide timely and accurate data about Mississippi University for Women. The primary goal is to present reliable statistical data and summary information to answer the most frequently asked questions about the University. Based on sound institutional research, the FACT BOOK serves as a first point-of-reference for institutional assessment, self-study, planning, and resource allocation.

Every effort has been made to ensure that the data contained in this document are accurate and easy to use. Prior to use of the data in policy development and/or analysis, you may wish to contact my office to ensure that you receive any post-publication changes.

Mississippi University for Women

Organizational Chart

*Mississippi University Fact Sheet

Mission of MUW

Mississippi University for Women is a public institution funded primarily by the State of Mississippi. As a member of the state higher education system, MUW is governed by the Board of Trustees of State Institutions of Higher Learning and is charged with serving the educational needs of the State of Mississippi, while also attracting students from the Southeast and the nation. MUW is dedicated to the liberal arts and to professional education for all students, with an emphasis on academic and leadership preparation for women.

Primarily an undergraduate institution, MUW places a high priority on teaching and learning in a personalized environment. Personnel in all areas of institutional support cooperate to provide an environment conducive to a successful educational experience. MUW is committed to diversity and quality in its recruiting and retention of students, faculty, and staff, and does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, age, color, religion, disability, or national origin.

Graduates of MUW are expected to possess a satisfactory degree of competence in the skills of written and oral communication, computation, and critical thinking; an understanding and appreciation of broad as well as specific areas of knowledge; an awareness of gender-related issues and multicultural diversity; and a sense of responsibility for service to the community.

To develop a greater understanding of self and the world and a broad base of knowledge and skill, all students take various core curriculum courses, including composition, mathematics, literature, history, laboratory science, social science, the fine arts, speech or philosophy, and physical education. The core curriculum also provides preparation for specific study in a major area and a broad perspective for continuing intellectual growth.

MUW offers degrees at the associate, baccalaureate, and graduate levels. Students select a major from liberal arts and preprofessional programs administered through the eight academic divisions: Business and Communications, Education and Human Sciences, Fine and Performing Arts, Health and Kinesiology, Humanities, Interdisciplinary Studies/The Culinary Arts Institute, Nursing, and Science and Mathematics. The University also provides continuing education and cultural enrichment programs as a service to the community and as a complement to its academic curriculum.
